Art Unit: 3653

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 8 through 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 8 lines 13-14, it is not understood how the pair of reverse-discharge rollers separate from each other as the rollers have not been previously defined as capable of being separated nor has any means for separating these rollers been recited.

In claim 11, it is not understood how the function of the rollers to start rotating as recited at a time when the rear end of the original document switchbacked leaves the pair of rollers since there is not means to detect the rear end or means to control the rollers based on such detection.

3. Claims 8 through 11 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

4. Applicant's arguments, see the communication, filed 23 September 2004, with respect to the combination of Kobayashi et al and Greco, Jr and the obvious double patenting rejection, have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 8 and 9 has been withdrawn.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 3653

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
